A student who fails to get minimum attendance will have to repeat the course with subsequent batch of the Programme. The tuition fee for the repetition of the course shall be decided by the University.

13. Evaluation

Each semester will be evaluated separately. The evaluation of theory and practical papers consists of two parts viz. continuous assessment (CA) and end semester assessment (ESA). Each paper carries 100 marks out of this, 30 marks will be for continuous assessment (CA) and 70 marks for end semester examination (ESA). The distribution of marks for the continuous assessment (CA) is as follows; mid test-10, assignment-10, test/seminar/viva-10. The evaluation of projects and laboratory course will be conducted by a board of examiners. The project has 75 marks, the evaluation of which will be done on the basis of the dissertation submitted followed by viva-voce (dissertation-50 and viva voce-25). The evaluation of the field visit will be done internally on the basis of the report submitted and on the basis of a viva examination by a board of examiners. The end semester examination will be conducted by the Department of Optoelectronics. The teachers shall submit the CA marks to the Head, Department of Optoelectronics, a week before the conduct of the end semester examination and the same shall be published in the Department of Optoelectronics.

14. Transparency in Evaluation

A provisional result of the end semester examination will be displayed in the Department of Optoelectronics, immediately after the completion of evaluation. If any student has complaints about the evaluation, the same shall be submitted to the Head of the Department of Optoelectronics in writing within a week. After hearing the views of the student as well as the teachers who have done the evaluation, appropriate decision will be done by the Course Co-ordination Committee.

15. Pass requirements and classification of results

A candidate will have to secure a minimum of 40% marks in ESA and an overall minimum of 50% in each course/subject for pass in each course/subject. A candidate will be declared passed in a semester if he/she scores not less than 50% in each course/subject. However for the award of the Advance PG Diploma, the classification will be done on the aggregate marks in both semesters.

A candidate will be declared to have passed the course if he/she satisfies the minimum requirement for each semester. Classifications will be based on the aggregate marks obtained in both semesters. Classification of Results.
